KYOTO REVIEW copyright (c) 1984, all rights retained by individual authors.

Thanks are due to Dr. Hiroshi Motoyama and the International Association for Religion and Parapsychology (I.A.R.P.) for permission to translate and publish "Huxley's World of Vision, Yoga and Psi-Science" and for their assistance in providing supplementary materials. We would also like to thank the British Council, Kyoto Centre, for permission to reproduce the poster announcing the schedule of "Aldous Huxley Week."

It is the policy of the editors to respect the wishes of each Japanese author as to whether his or her name is presented in the traditional Japanese manner, that is with the family name first, or with the given name first as is done in English-speaking countries. In the present issue, other than Katagiri Mitsuru, all authors' names appear with the given name first.

Kyoto Review is issued from Kyoto Seika College. All correspondence should be sent to the editors of Kyoto Review, Kyoto Seika College, 137 Iwakura Kino, Sakyo-ku, Kyoto, 606 Japan.

Copies are available for 500 yen each in Japan, postage included. For overseas mail order and subscription, send 5 International Reply Coupons per issue.
